

VERMONT YOUNG PLAYWRIGHTS PROJECT 2009-2010

WHAT?

Two-day or three-day residency in your classroom (middle or high school) with a professional playwright/ educator. Students are introduced to the fundamentals of playwriting, inspired by writing prompts, supported by a refining process, and celebrated at the Festival, where one play from each school is highlighted in a rehearsed staged reading by professional actors and directors from Vermont Stage Company, and another play receives a public cold reading.

WHERE?

We come to you! Residencies are held in your school. The festival is held at the Flynn Center in Burlington.

WHEN?

Residencies can be arranged around your schedule. The festival will be held on May 17 and/or May 18, 2010.

HOW MANY?

Generally there are 20 students per residency. If you have need of an exception, ask.

COST?

$900 for two-day residency and festival, $1200 for three-day residency and festival

HOW DO I SIGN UP?

Contact Terry Close for more info at tclose@flynncenter.org or 802-652-4540.